IFSC EUROPE EVENT

A little explanation...

TOURISM HOTEL: a commercial accommodation establishment that offers rooms for rent to individual or group clients who stay there for a day, a week or a month.

STAYING LODGE: a type of accommodation designed to welcome groups or families for a weekend, a week or longer. Their capacity generally ranges between 12 and 50 people. The operator of these establishments can offer catering services or provide a self-catering kitchen.

GROUP ACCOMMODATION CENTER: a type of accommodation with a larger capacity (up to around 100 people) available for self-catering or with board options.

BED AND BREAKFAST: furnished rooms in private homes designed to welcome clients for one or more nights, with at least some services such as the provision of linen and breakfast.

ROOM IN A PRIVATE HOME: furnished or unfurnished rooms in private homes designed to welcome clients for one or more nights, with or without additional services.

TOURISM FURNISHED RENTAL: an apartment, chalet or house for the exclusive use of the tenant, offered for rent to transient clients who stay there for a period characterized by a rental on a daily, weekly or monthly basis and who do not establish residency there. Tourism furnished rentals must meet minimum habitation and comfort conditions based on a voluntary administrative star rating in accordance with the ministerial order of August 2, 2010 and modified by the order of May 7, 2012.

You can find all rental procedures as well as descriptions, availability and photos of accommodations on our website.
