12. ADDITIONAL PROGRAMME ACTIVITIES

12.1. Anti-Doping Seminar

The IFSC firmly believes that athletes' initial engagement with anti-doping should occur through comprehensive education rather than testing. Athletes enter the sport with a clean record, and it is the responsibility of sporting organisations to equip them with the knowledge and guidance necessary to uphold the principles of clean sport throughout their careers.

As part of IFSC Anti-doping education plan, the IFSC invites athletes and coaches to take part to a 2-days activities aimed at promoting clean sport in youth athletes.

The activities will include a 60-minute presentation (22 September at 17:00 – Olympic Parktel Hotel, Berlin Hall) and an education booth over the following day (23 September). All activities are delivered by ITA Education Ambassador.

12.2. Athletes' Forum

The IFSC together with the Athletes Commission will host an Athletes' Forum during the Climbing and Para Climbing World Championships, providing a space for athletes to share their views, ask questions, and engage in open dialogue. This is an important opportunity for athletes to contribute to the development of the sport and voice their perspectives. Details on the specific topics will be communicated to athletes in advance.

12.3. IFSC World Cups awards

The IFSC awarding ceremony for the podium of the 2025 IFSC World Cup rankings, presented by EuroHolds, will take place during the 2025 IFSC World Championships. The schedule is outlined above, and the relevant athletes are required to attend.
